Summer Swim League

MSSL UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP

Purpose: To give financial, educational support to league teens that competed through their final year of eligibility on their MSSL swim team.

Eligibility/Criteria: A degree-seeking (for any major) university freshman who swam with their Maverick summer league swim team for at least two summers, competed in his/her final year of eligibility (through age 18 or senior year in high school), has a minimum of an 80 GPA or higher, and can show proof of admission to a community college or a 4 year college/university.

Award amount: $500 (non-renewable) The award check is payable jointly to the scholarship winner and the college/university the scholarship winner attends. The money can only be used for qualified educational expenses to include tuition, fees, books, or course-related supplies and equipment. The award cannot be used for room and board, travel, research, clerical help, and non-required equipment.

How many awards are given each year: A minimum of two, but may be more as determined by the current MSSL Board and available funding.

Selection process: GPA, SAT scores to include verbal, math, and essay, number of years of summer league swim team participation, and a counselor's recommendation form.

Date scholarship applications are accepted: Not before January 1st

Date scholarship application is due: No later than March 31st

Date of scholarship payout: By August 1st (with proof of admittance)

Winner's names to be posted on web site: www.maverickssl.org and/or e-mail.
